

A Bill for the more Effectuall Sup<sup>r</sup>ssing of Prophane Curse-ing and Swearing. L. H. I.
p. 280

A Bill for Impowering the Vestrymen &c to assess their pishoners for finishing and repairing of Churches.

A Bill appointing how Publick officers shall recouer their dues accruing by their offices.

A Bill for the punishment of privateers and Pyratts.

A Bill for vesting two Tracts of Land in In<sup>o</sup> Gadsby sold him by Geo: Norman.

A Bill for p<sup>r</sup>venting of the Sherriffes Summoning the Delegates and Iustices of the peace to serve as Iuro<sup>rs</sup> in this province.

A Bill for assessing of the publick Levy of this province.

Where being admitted and p<sup>r</sup>senting the afores<sup>d</sup> Bills, his Excellency was pleased on behalfe of his Maty: King William the third of England &c to assent thereunto and Signed the same.

Whereupon they were sealed with the Broad seale of this Province.

After which his Excellency was pleased to recommend to M<sup>r</sup> Speaker that some members might be appointed to Examine the Journall of this sessions.

Ordered that Major Iohn Hammond Cap<sup>t</sup> Richard Hill and M<sup>r</sup> Sam<sup>l</sup> Young Examine the Journall of this Sessions.

Whereupon His Excellency was pleased to remarke to them that he was hartily sorry that they have been so long upon the business of the Country which had they not been interrupted by heats and animosities amongst them, since they might have brought this Sessions to a much sooner conclusion, but for as much as he hopes they are all now buried in the Depth of oblivion he is not willing to revive them againe.

As for the Gentlemen of his Maty<sup>s</sup> hon<sup>ble</sup> Council he does on his Maj<sup>ty</sup>s behalfe returne them thanks for their Zeall to his Maty<sup>s</sup> Service and that he will recomend them to his Matj<sup>ty</sup>s for the same.

And for as much as he hopes all differences are Composed or forgott he will not make any Distinction or Seperation amongst the Gent: of the house of Delegates, and for what hath hapened he doth believe was through Inadvertency, and as he has an Esteem for all p<sup>r</sup>sons that had shewed themselves truely Loyall to his Maj<sup>ty</sup> whensoever that occasion may req<sup>r</sup> it he will signalize it by the best services he may doe them.

His Excellency was further pleased to Remark to them th<sup>t</sup> his Maj<sup>ty</sup> has been Graciously pleased to remove him from this