Chap. VII
[Wm Parks
compilation,
1727, p. 276]

An Act to confirm an Estate in Fee-Simple to such Persons as already have or hereafter shall purchase any the Lands lying in the New-Town, commonly called The Addition to the City of Annapolis, or any Land adjoining to the said City of Annapolis, commonly called, The Town-Pasture or Common; and to invest them with the same Privileges within the City of Annapolis, as other the Freeholders therein now have, or hereafter may enjoy.

Whereas sundry Persons lately have, and still do continue to purchase Lots or Parcels of Ground lying as well in the New-Town commonly called The Addition to the City of Annapolis, as in the Land adjoining to the said City of Annapolis, commonly called, The Town-Pasture of Common, from the respective Proprietors thereof. And whereas the said Purchasers do design to settle and improve the said Lots; but forasmuch as it may hereafter be doubted whether their Title to the said Lots are good and valid, or that by Virtue of their respective Purchases, they may be entituled to the same Rights and Priviledges that other the Inhabitants or Freeholders of the said City do now, or hereafter may enjoy,
