No. II A Supplementary Act to the Act entituled, An Act to enable the Justices of Charles County, to Levy a Sum of Tobacco on the taxable Inhabitants of Port-Tobacco Parish in the said County, for the Purposes therein mentioned.

[Preamble.] Whereas, by Virtue of the Act entituled, An Act to enable the Justices of Charles County, to Levy a Sum of Tobacco on the taxable Inhabitants of Port-Tobacco Parish in the said County, for the Purposes therein mentioned, the Vestrymen of the said Parish p. 23 have entered into and made an Agreement with William Waite, of the Colony of Virginia, for the Erecting and Building a Church in the Parish aforesaid, according to certain Articles between them executed; and many of the Materials for the said Building have been brought, and now are on or near the Place where the said Church is to be built in Pursuance of the said Agreement.

And whereas, soon after the making the said Agreement and Bond with sufficient Surety being taken, for the said Waite his complying therewith, the Majority of the Vestrymen of the said Parish, at a Meeting of the said Vestry, did, in Pursuance of their said Agreement, draw an Order on the Sheriff of the said County, in whose Hands the Tobacco for the first Year's Assessment then was, to pay the same to the said Waite, which Payment the said Sheriff refused to make, because the said Order was not signed by the Churchwardens for the said Parish, by Means of which Refusal, the said Waite hath not yet received any of the Tobacco which has been levied by Virtue of the said Act, but the same still remains in the Hands of the said Sheriff: In order therefore, that the said Agreement for the Building the said Church may be executed, and the Contract made by the said Vestrymen, on their Part, discharged, it is prayed that it may be Enacted.

[Sheriff en- by and with the Advice and Consent of his Lordship's Governor, joined to pay and the Upper and Lower Houses of Assembly, and the Authority Wm. Waite of the same, That all the Tobacco now in the Hands of the said what To- Sheriff by him received, by Virtue of the said Act, he shall be bacco he has in his Hands, on Order of obliged, and is hereby enjoined and directed to pay unto the said the Vestry.] William Waite, his Executors, Administrators, or Assigns, on his
