

READING CLERK: Resolution No. 3, by Delegate Malkus.

A RESOLUTION concerning the budget and financial affairs of the Constitutional Convention of 1967.

THE PRESIDENT: Resolution No. 3 is referred to the Committee on the Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget.

Are there any other resolutions? Are there any other motions?

(There was no response.)

I understand that all of the proposals which have been read across the desk today have been reproduced and either have been distributed or will be in a very few minutes. Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, I would like to move at this time that the Convention extend its congratulations to Delegate Rybczynski who, no matter how much he is neglected on the board, has a wife who gave birth to their ninth child this morning.

(Applause.)

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Rybczynski, I am sure you want to record this remark on the tape; so let us be sure your microphone is working.

DELEGATE RYBCZYNSKI: So that I will not forget it, Mr. President, just by way of response and by way of explanation, not only as to the cigars, although it might be nice for me to distribute a cigar to each desk, I did it symbolically by going north, east, south, and west. I want you to know I was not a cheapskate about this. I really paid a dollar for each cigar. I get to keep the watch that came with the cigars. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any other motions?

If you have not already received Delegate Proposal No. 107 and if you can stay for just a few minutes after the session, it will be on your desk.

I have just a very few announcements. There are eleven delegates who have been too shy to have their pictures taken across the street in Room 310 of the State Office Building. I have been requested to announce their names. I will not do that. I think each of you knows who it is. I would request that you do so this afternoon if you can and if not, the first thing tomorrow morning. This is holding up the preparation of the roster, which is very much needed.

In addition, one and apparently only one delegate must submit to the photographer again. Because of some technical defect, his picture did not turn out. We will notify him, and I will not speculate right now as to his name.

I have mentioned before the transcripts which are being circulated to you fairly promptly; that is, the stenographic transcript of these proceedings. A number of you have called to my attention, or to that of other members of the staff, some errors, either typographical or otherwise, in the transcript. It is not necessary that these errors be corrected on the floor. They are largely errors of spelling or misunderstanding of a name, or a matter of that sort. We are, however, very anxious that the final complete transcript which will be printed be as free of all error as possible. I would therefore urgently ask you when you read the transcript, any part of it, if you note an error of any kind, if you will simply either pick up the phone and call one of the secretaries in my office or drop a short memorandum calling attention to the error. All you have to do is give us the page and line and very briefly what the error is. We are accumulating these. Do not assume that the error is so obvious that someone else will pick it up, and therefore you do not have to mention it, because it is quite often these most obvious errors which are missed by almost everyone; so no matter how minor, no matter how inconsequential it may seem, it would be a real service to the Convention if you will take the trouble, either to telephone my secretary or give me a memorandum of it.

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, I am pleased to announce that this morning the Committee on the Executive Branch elected the Honorable Dale Adkins as its Vice-Chairman.

THE PRESIDENT: Any other announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, I would like to announce at this point that the next meeting of the full Committee will be Friday morning, the 22nd, at 10:30, but at the same time, I would like to announce that we have scheduled what we refer to as public hearings, hearings to which the general public is invited to present their testimony. These hearings have been scheduled as follows:

There already has been a press release or newspaper coverage of them. The rea-
