

introduce these proposals, so that I will not get any unfair credit, I would like to have the other Taylor designated as Lloyd Taylor, and I will designate myself as Harry.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Taylor, the Clerk is attempting to do this in every instance. If he is not, I apologize for it. There are at least a half dozen of these cases. With respect to your valued report, we have been pressing the printer on that. He promised he would have an additional two hundred copies by noon today. Copies have not arrived, although noon did. I sincerely hope we will have at least that many more by Friday, at which time he promised another thousand copies; so you should then have an ample number. I doubt if we will get a thousand by Friday, but they should be here by Monday.

I think that I have one copy in my office, and if you do not mind a copy that has my name on it, you can come by and pick it up.

Just a few very brief announcements that I should have made earlier that I did not. I wanted to tell you that the officers and the chairmen of the committees were guests today at lunch of the Legislative Liaison Committee. That Committee invited us to join them to discuss with them their role in assisting the Convention, and indicate the manner in which they hoped to be of some assistance. I will not detail that for you now, but the chairmen of your committees will tell you just how that has been worked out.

I believe, although I am not sure, that all committee chairmen have now announced the elections of their vice-chairmen. If I am in error on this, and if any committees have elected vice-chairmen and the announcement has not been made on the floor, I would like to call for it now. Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, under the heading of committee announcements, I would like to report to the house that the Committee on General Provisions is still considering the important problem of education. As we indicated before, we have broken this down into four broad categories, and I am happy to announce that we have tentatively completed the category of constitutional recognition. We now move into the phase of public education, when we have blocked out a solid week of hearings. Hopefully, we can conclude this within the next week. Tomorrow, the Committee will meet on what we call Board of Education, and in the morning, we will hear from the President of the State Board of Education, and the President of the State Association of Local Boards of Education. Tomorrow morning, we will hear from presidents of local boards of education.

The committee will meet fifteen minutes after this Convention adjourns today, and again at 10 o'clock tomorrow morning, sharp. Thank you, sir.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections has scheduled the election of its vice-president Friday morning.

THE PRESIDENT: Thank you. Delegate Gallagher?

DELEGATE GALLAGHER: Mr. President, the Committee on the Legislative Branch has scheduled its vice-presidential election on Monday at 2:00 P.M.

THE PRESIDENT: Vice-Chairman election. Is there any similar announcement by committee chairmen? Delegate Powers?

DELEGATE POWERS: The Committee on Calendar and Agenda will hold its meeting on Friday, one half hour before the session for the purpose of electing a vice-president, among other things.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Kiefer?

DELEGATE KIEFER: Mr. President, the Committee on Personal Rights and the Preamble will elect a vice-chairman immediately after this meeting.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there further such announcements by the committee chairmen? If not, I wanted to repeat one statement that was made before the Committee on Rules yesterday, having to do with the matter of public relations.

We are endeavoring to work out a program having as many as possible of the delegates speak to various groups in their own localities. We have received a number of requests for somebody to speak on the work of the Constitutional Convention, and wherever possible, we would like to have the delegate or delegates from that area undertake this additional assignment. We realize that in some instances it would be an inconvenience and a burden, but it is a very important part of the work of the Convention, and we hope that when the request is forwarded to you that you will accept. If, for some reason, you cannot, please notify the Information Service promptly so that someone else can be scheduled.
