

is a report of the Committee on Rules. I do not think it has been circulated yet. It will be here in a few moments. We will take that up after introduction and first reading of proposals.

Delegate Proposal No. 108. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 108, by Delegate Fox. Title,

A PROPOSAL that the prohibition against lotteries be retained and enlarged to prevent the initiation of a lottery by the State or any of its political subdivisions.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 108 is referred to the Committee on State Finance and Taxation.

Delegate Proposal No. 109. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 109, by Delegate Johnson. Title,

A PROPOSAL that the provisions in the Constitution concerning vacancy in the office of a senator or a delegate be retained.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 109 is referred to the Committee on the Legislative Branch.

Delegate Proposal No. 110. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 110, by Delegate Chabot. Title,

A PROPOSAL that establishes a two-house General Assembly; legislative districts; the maximum size of each house; the maximum number of senators and delegates who may represent a district; the eligibility requirements for legislators; the election, term of office, and compensation of legislators; the filling of legislative vacancies; the control of each house over its members as judge of their qualifications, selection, and punishment; the immunity of legislators in civil and criminal proceedings; a prohibition against the appointment of legislators to certain offices; legislative sessions; the number of members of a house necessary to constitute a quorum; the organization of the General Assembly; the manner in which bills shall be considered, passed, and reconsidered after gubernatorial veto; and a daily journal for each house.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 110 is referred to the Committee on the Legislative Branch.

There should be on your desk accompanying that proposal a memorandum of three pages. Do you all have it? The Chief Page tells me that the memorandum is not back from the printers yet. It will be put on your desks later.

Delegate Proposal No. 111. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 111, by Delegates Sollins, Bard, Boyles, Caldwell, Dulaney, Freedlander, Grumbacher, Hargrove, Hopkins, Kiefer, Litzel, Lord, Marion, Needle, Neilson, Pullen, Schloeder, Schneider, Siewierski, Singer, Sosnowski, Ulrich and Wagandt. Title,

A PROPOSAL that an instrument of government for a county shall establish single-member districts for the election of members of that branch of the county government exercising legislative power; that each such district shall be compact, consist of adjoining territory, and be as nearly equal in population to each other district as practicable; and that each county legislative member shall be elected by the qualified voters of the district from which he seeks election.

THE PRESIDENT:

I call to your attention the fact that the names of two of the delegates sponsoring this proposal have inadvertently been misspelled and ask that you correct your copies. Delegate Freedlander, the name needs a "d" after "Free"; Delegate Sosnowski, whose name needs a "w". I am sorry for the error.

Delegate Proposal No. 111 is referred to the Committee on Local Government.

Delegate Proposal No. 112. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 112, by Delegate M. I. Anderson. Title,

A PROPOSAL that the legislative, executive, and judicial powers of government shall be forever separate and distinct from each other.

THE PRESIDENT: Delegate Proposal No. 112 is referred to the Committee on General Provisions.

Delegate Proposal No. 113. The Clerk will read the proposal.

READING CLERK: Delegate Proposal No. 113, by Delegate Werner Fornos. Title,

A PROPOSAL that no county or parts of a county shall be included in a regional government without the expressed consent of the majority of the voters of such county.
