

READING CLERK: The Committee on Public Information: Chairman, William B. Dulany; Delegates Murray Abramson, Harry Bard, Perry E. Darby, Werner Fornos, C. William Gilchrist, John R. Hargrove, E. Ralph Hostetter, James P. Gleason, Juanita Jackson Mitchell, J. Frank Raley, Jr., Frank C. Robey, Jr., Marvin H. Smith, Stanley Sollins and Ronald Willoner.

THE PRESIDENT: I have no further announcements. Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Scanlan?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: Mr. President, I believe the Seventh Report of the Committee on Rules is on the desk of the Clerk, and I would like to have it accepted and referred to the proper committee at this time. I do not believe it has ever been read across the Clerk's desk.

THE PRESIDENT: Which report is this?

DELEGATE SCANLAN: The seventh report, dated October 4, Mr. President.

THE PRESIDENT: The seventh report is the one that was distributed today. It was on the Calendar and was stricken. I will ask the Clerk to read the report.

READING CLERK: The Seventh Report of the Committee on Rules, Credentials and Convention Budget, October 4, 1967. The Committee on Rules has considered Motion No. 2, introduced by Delegates Johnson and Rybczynski.

THE PRESIDENT: The Chair recognizes Delegate Scanlan.

DELEGATE SCANLAN: I move that further reading of the Seventh Report be dispensed with and the report be considered as having been read.

THE PRESIDENT: Is there a second?

(The motion was duly seconded.)

THE PRESIDENT: The question arises on the motion to consider so much of the report as the reading of the entire report. All those in favor, signify by saying Aye; contrary, No. The Ayes have it. It is so ordered.

The report is referred to the Committee on Calendar and Agenda.

Are there any announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Morgan?

DELEGATE MORGAN: Mr. President, the Committee on the Executive Branch will meet tomorrow morning at 9:30 o'clock. We are going to have hearings on the earlier delegate proposals.

Delegate Armor, his Proposal No. 168; Joseph P. Murphy who joined with Mr. Vecera on 168; Delegate Byrnes, on Proposals No. 59 and 217, and Delegate Henry Boyles, on his Proposal No. 165.

If we cannot complete those tomorrow, we will carry them over. That will be either the next day or some day next week.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements? Delegate Koss?

DELEGATE KOSS: Mr. President, the Committee on Suffrage and Elections will hold a Committee meeting tomorrow morning at 10:00 A.M., and Friday at 9:30 A.M. I would like to announce that Senator Brewster, who was scheduled to appear this morning, was unable to because of a crucial vote in the Senate. We rescheduled him for 9:30 A.M. tomorrow morning. I would like at this point also to announce that the Committee will meet at 1:00 P.M. on Monday. I would like to urge all the delegates who have introduced proposals that have been referred to our Committee please to respond to the invitation we issued for you to come and discuss your proposals with us. Thank you.

THE PRESIDENT: Are there any further announcements by committee chairmen? Delegate Boyer?

DELEGATE BOYER: Mr. President, I am very happy to report that the Committee on General Provisions is making great progress in its deliberations on education, and that we will today complete deliberating on the phase of higher education. This afternoon, we will hear from Miss Jean Shannon of Prince George's County; also from Dr. Wesley Dorn and Delegate Ed Cook, who are experts in the field of education. After that we will hear from Dr. Lincoln Gordon, President of Johns Hopkins University.

This evening at 7:00 P.M. we will start again. We will hear Dr. Allen Ostar, Executive Director of the National Association of State Colleges and Universities; and after that, Dr. Russell Thackrey, who is the Executive Director of the National Association of State Universities and Land Grant Colleges.

Tomorrow morning, we will start on the phase of fiscal matters in the thorny thicket of education, and at that time, we will hear from Mr. Adam Uhl, who is the Chief of the Purchasing Bureau; Dr. Paul Cooper,
