

and receive, all and all manner of debt and debts due and owing to the said deceased, and well and faithfully to dispose of the same, and out of the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, which have, may, or shall come to your hands or possession, well and truly to pay the debts due by the said deceased, so far forth as the same will extend, and the law will charge you, according to the true value of the sum thereof, you having first taken your oath well and truly to administer the same, and to make or cause to be made, a true and perfect inventory of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased, together with a list of the debts sperate and desperate, which have, may, or shall come to your hands, possession, or knowledge, appraised in money; as also to render a true and just account of and upon your administration therein, and to exhibit both into our office for probate of wills &c.— lawfully authorised; touching which inventory you are presently assigned to perform, or at furthest at or before the                      day of                      now next ensuing, and an account within twelve months from the date of these presents; and lastly we do hereby constitute and appoint you the said administrator of all and singular the goods, chattels, and credits of the said deceased.

Witness