

Appeal.

any issue of fact in said case, which issue shall be sent to a court of law for trial, and the complainant may require, by said bill or by another bill, the officers of such corporation to discover, under oath, who are indebted to said corporation, and the amount and consideration of such indebtedness, and for the purpose of such discovery, all or any of the officers of said corporation may be made defendants, and any of the parties in said causes shall be entitled to an appeal, as allowed in cases in equity; and the said bill may be filed in the Circuit Court of any county in which any of the directors of such corporation reside, or in the county in which said corporation last had its principal office or place of business, or in the Circuit Court of Baltimore city, if any of said directors there reside, or if said corporation last had in said city its principal office or place of business.

Known by title.

Sec. 215. And be it enacted, That it shall be sufficient in any suit, pleading or process, either at law or in equity, or before any Justice of the Peace, by or against any joint stock company or association, to describe the said joint stock company or association by the name or title by which it is commonly known, or by or under which its business is transacted.

Act applicable to all corporations.

Sec. 216. And be it enacted, That all corporations heretofore formed under the general laws of this State, relating to corporations, or under any special law, are hereby declared to be entitled to the benefit of and to be subject to all the regulations in this Act, contained for the government of the corporation herein referred to, so far as the same be applicable to said several corporations heretofore formed as aforesaid; and shall also have the benefit and be subject to the processes, remedies or proceedings, by this Act authorized to be taken by or against the corporations herein referred to, so far as the same be applicable to the several corporations heretofore formed as aforesaid.

Interest in store.

Sec. 217. And be it enacted, That no railroad or mining company, formed or organized under any of the provisions of this State, or which have organized under any existing laws, charter or Act of the General Assembly of this State, shall own,