

appointed to decide upon, and for any subsequent meeting within the year; and the commanding officer of the regiment in whose district such person shall reside, shall thereupon cause his name to be stricken from the muster roll of the district company in which he is enrolled, under a penalty not exceeding twenty dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require.

756. If any commissioned officer shall issue such certificate to any person who is not entitled under this law to receive the same, he shall be cashiered or fined not exceeding one hundred dollars, in the discretion of such court martial as the case may require; and if any person shall give or receive such certificate who is not authorized to give or entitled to receive the same, such person shall forfeit and pay the sum of fifty dollars, which shall be recovered under the direction of any officer discovering the same, and when collected, shall be paid over to the paymaster of the third division.

757. The parades of the first light division shall take place as follows: regimental inspection, first Monday in May, two o'clock, P.M.; brigade parade, first Monday in June, two o'clock, P.M.; company parade, twelfth of September, eight o'clock, A.M.; division review, nineteenth of October, nine o'clock, A.M.; and if either of the said last two parades happen on Sunday, it shall take place at the same hour on the following day.

758. At the May, June and September parades, the commanding officer of the division, as soon as the parade is formed at the place appointed in division orders, shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officer of brigades, the command of their respective brigades, and the commanding officer of brigades at the May and September parade, shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officers of regiments the command of their respective regiments, and such commanding officers of regiments at the September parade shall forthwith hand over to the commanding officers of companies, the command of their respective companies.

759. The parades of the third division shall take place on the first Wednesday in May, the first Wednesday in June, the twelfth day of September, and the first Wednesday in October; the parades in May shall be company parades, the parades in June shall be regimental parades for inspection, and the parades in