

825. When said bond is inspected by the judges of said court, and is deemed good and sufficient, and is so certified, the same shall be forthwith entered among the proceedings of said court, and sent to the Comptroller for his approval, and when said bond shall be approved by the Comptroller, he shall forthwith make a certificate of the fact of such approval and send the said certificate to the judges of said Orphans' Court, and the same shall be entered among the proceedings of the court.

826. A refusal or neglect on the part of said Register to give bond, to be approved and recorded as aforesaid within the time prescribed, shall be deemed a disqualification within the meaning of the Constitution, and thereupon his place shall be filled according to the provisions of the fourteenth and eighteenth sections of the fourth article of the Constitution, and subject to the term and service therein prescribed.

SCHOOLS.

827. The mayor and city council shall have power to establish public schools within said city, and levy and collect such taxes for the support thereof as may be necessary; Provided, said taxes be not levied upon any property by law exempt from taxation.

828. The Treasurer of Maryland shall annually pay to the mayor and city council such portion of the school fund of the State as said city may be entitled to.

829. The Orphans' Court of said city shall order and direct the funds arising from intestates' estates that may be administered upon in said court, and which remain undistributed for want of legal representatives of the intestates to claim the same, to be paid to the board of commissioners of public schools.

830. The court shall not make such order until they shall be satisfied that the intestate left no legal representatives living at the time of his or her death, and they shall cause the administrator of such intestates to give notice, by advertisement to be inserted for such periods of time and in newspapers published in such places as they may deem necessary, that upon the default of the appearance of any legal representative of the intestate, by a certain day to be fixed by the court, and named in said
