

by the said sheriff to the clerk of the Circuit Court of said county and be by such clerk filed in his office, and shall be confirmed by said court at its next session, if no sufficient cause to the contrary be shown, and when confirmed shall be recorded by the said clerk at the expense of the mayor and city council of Baltimore.

935. If not confirmed, the said court may direct another inquisition in the manner above described.

936. The inquisition shall describe the property taken or the bounds of the land condemned, and the quantity or duration of the interest in the same, valued to the mayor and city council of Baltimore, and such valuation, when paid or tendered to the owner or owners of said property, or his or their legal representatives, shall entitle the said mayor and city council of Baltimore to the use, estate and interest in the same thus valued, as fully as if it had been conveyed by the owner or owners of the same, and the valuation, if not received when tendered, may at any time thereafter be received from the mayor and city council of Baltimore, without interest, by the said owner or owners, or his or their legal representative or representatives.

937. If the twenty jurors summoned as aforesaid shall not appear at the time and place appointed as aforesaid, the sheriff or his deputy, as the case may be, shall forthwith summon other freeholders of the county from the bystanders or others qualified as aforesaid, to make up the said jury to the number of twelve.

938. The jurors so summoned and attending shall be allowed the same compensation as is allowed to the jurors in the Circuit Court of the county, and the sheriff shall be allowed similar fees as are by law allowed for the summoning jurors to attend the Circuit Court of the county, and also a per diem of two dollars for every day he or his deputy shall be in attendance upon an inquisition, and such expenses shall be paid by the said mayor and city council of Baltimore, except in cases of objections to the confirmation of inquisitions before the Circuit Court, when the costs in said court may be awarded in the discretion of the court.

939. For the purpose of defraying all the expenses and costs of said lands, waters and water rights, as shall be taken or purchased for the purposes aforesaid, and of constructing all works
