

cation during the year, or if they are unable to elect, they shall order a new election, at such time and place as they shall direct, to fill said vacancy.

98. If during the year for which they were elected any of the commissioners shall die, resign, refuse to act, remove from said village or be otherwise disqualified, an election to fill such vacancy shall be held, unless the commissioners shall fill the vacancy, and all persons qualified to vote at a regular shall be entitled to vote at such special election.

99. The clerk to the said commissioners shall make duplicate returns of each election by the people, or by the commissioners, to fill vacancies, at such times as the commissioners shall require, to the clerks of Dorchester and Caroline counties respectively, to be kept by them in their offices.

100. The commissioners shall appoint a judge or judges of each election, and give one week's notice of the election, and the judge or judges shall appoint the clerk of the election.

101. The said commissioners shall, at their first meeting after an election, choose one of their number to be president of the board, who shall preside at all meetings of the said commissioners, and preserve order, and carry into full effect the provisions of this charter and the ordinances of said commissioners.

102. The commissioners of said village may meet together from time to time as often as occasion may require, upon the business of said village, and not less than once in every three months.

103. They may appoint a clerk and assign his duties, and allow him such compensation as they may think proper, and if a vacancy occur in the said office at any time, they may fill the same.

104. The clerk shall enter all ordinances passed by the commissioners, or a majority of them, in a book to be kept by them for the purpose; the said ordinances shall be open at all times for the inspection of any person interested, and copies of all ordinances shall be put up in the most public places in the village.
