

104. The county commissioners of Anne Arundel county shall annually levy on the assessable property in said county a sum of money not exceeding fifteen hundred dollars, to be applied to the payment and discharge of the expenses of jurymen at the Circuit Court.

105. The sum of money so levied, when collected, shall by the said commissioners be deposited in the Farmers Bank of Maryland, and a certificate signed by the clerk of the Circuit Court expressing the number of days which any jurymen may have attended, and the sum due to him for such attendance, shall be a sufficient authority to the cashier of the said bank to pay the amount so specified in the said certificate.

106. The county commissioners shall annually settle and balance their account with the said bank, and the surplus, if any, shall be by them applied to the use of the county.

JUSTICES OF THE PEACE AND CONSTABLES.

107. There shall be the following number of justices of the peace and constables for Anne Arundel county, to wit: for election district number one, five justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number two, five justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number three, five justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number four, five justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number five, four justices of the peace and three constables; for election district number six, three justices of the peace and two constables; for election district number eight, five justices of the peace and three constables.

108. No justice of the peace or constable residing in the city of Annapolis shall have jurisdiction over the persons of citizens resident of Anne Arundel county whilst within the limits of said city, by issuing or serving summons for the recovery of small debts due and owing to citizens of Annapolis.

109. No justice of the peace or constable residing in Anne Arundel county shall have jurisdiction over the persons of citizens of Annapolis, whilst within the limits of said county, by issuing or serving summons for the recovery of small debts due and owing to persons inhabitants of Anne Arundel county.