

110. The fees of constables in Anne Arundel county shall be as follows, to wit: for serving a summons for debt under fifty dollars and return, forty cents; for serving summons for debt over fifty dollars and return, fifty cents; for serving State's warrant and return, fifty cents; for serving fieri facias and return, forty cents; for inflicting stripes agreeably to a judgment of a justice of the peace, fifty cents; for delivering a person committed over to the jailer, one dollar; for dispersing tumultuous meetings of negroes, such sum as the county commissioners of said county may think proper, not exceeding twenty-five dollars in any one year; for taking runaways, six dollars; for levying fieri facias and return, twenty cents; for summoning jury of inquest, for each person summoned, twelve and a half cents; for serving an attachment for contempt, fifty cents; for levying distress for rent, one dollar and twenty-five cents, for which cost the tenant shall in all cases be liable to the landlord; for summoning appraisers on distress for rent, for each appraiser summoned, twenty cents; for swearing appraisers, each, ten cents.

111. There shall be paid to each of the constables in said county, annually, the sum of twenty-five dollars in consideration of the services which they are required to render, for which no fees of office are now fixed by law, and the commissioners of the county shall levy the same when they levy for the other expenses of the county; but the said commissioners may retain and refuse to pay the same in any case in which it shall appear to them that the constable, otherwise entitled to receive the same, has been negligent or remiss in the performance of his duties as such.

LUMBER INSPECTORS.

112. The inspector of lumber at the city of Annapolis shall have power to appoint a deputy, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the principal inspector, and no longer, and shall at the time of his appointment take the oath required by law.

113. The Governor shall, by and with the advice and consent of the Senate, biennially appoint an inspector of lumber at Bristol, in Anne Arundel county, whose duty it shall be to inspect all lumber that shall be brought to said place for sale, and who shall be entitled to the same compensation as the inspectors of lumber in the city of Baltimore.
