

on the district thereof as they may deem sufficient to purchase a site for a school house, build, keep in repair, and furnish the same with fuel, books, stationery and appendages; they may at the same meeting elect a clerk and collector for the district by ballot, and may repeal, regulate and modify all such proceedings as they may think proper; but no site of a school house shall be changed except with a vote of a majority of the taxable inhabitants of the district.

132. Any district meeting may adjourn from time to time as they may think proper.

133. The clerk elected by a district meeting shall give bond, to the satisfaction of the trustees, to keep the records and proceedings of said meeting.

134. He shall keep a record of the proceedings of the district in a book to be kept for that purpose; shall give notice of all meetings called by the trustees, and when any district meeting shall be adjourned for more than one month, he shall give notice thereof in writing at least ten days before the time appointed for such meeting, and shall, at the expiration of his term of office, deliver to his successor all the books and papers of his office.

135. The collector of a school district shall give bond, with security to the satisfaction of the trustees, for the faithful discharge of the duties of his office, and shall have the same power and authority with respect to the school business of the district, as the collector of county charges, and the collector of county charges may, if elected, be the collector of any school district.

136. The collector and clerk elected in any district shall hold their respective offices for one year, and until a new election shall have been made, and in case either of said offices shall be vacated by the refusal to serve, removal out of the district, or incapacity of such officer, and the vacancy shall not be supplied by the district at a special or other district meeting within one month thereafter, the commissioners of the school fund may supply said vacancy.

137. If any person shall refuse to serve in the office of trustee, collector or clerk of any school district, he shall forfeit and pay the sum of five dollars, to be recovered by action in the name
