

taxable inhabitants of the district may select a new site for a school house and build a school house thereon, and the expense shall be assessed on the taxable inhabitants of the district.

143. Whenever a new school house is built under the provisions of the preceding section, the trustees of the district may sell and convey the old school house in such manner as the taxable inhabitants of the district shall determine.

144. The trustees of each school district shall appoint the teacher therein, but they shall not employ as a teacher, any one who shall not produce, at the time of his application, the aforesaid certificate from the board of examiners, if there be any one applying for the school who has such certificate.

145. No children shall be admitted into any school under the age of five years.

146. The trustees of each school district shall annually, in the month of November, report to the commissioners of the school fund the condition of their respective school districts, and particularly the application of the school fund under their direction.

147. The commissioners of the school fund shall make an annual report to the Orphans' Court of said county, particularly setting forth the amount received and disbursed for the use of the primary schools; and the said report shall, by the order of said court, be published in the newspapers in said county.

148. The trustees of primary school district number one, shall levy on the assessable property of that portion of school district number six, in Caroline county, which was heretofore united with primary school district number one, in Queen Anne's county, the same ratio of taxation levied on the assessable property of Queen Anne's county, for the support of primary schools, and they shall appoint a suitable person to collect the same, who shall, before he enters upon the discharge of his duties, file with the said trustees a bond to the State of Maryland, in the sum of three hundred dollars, approved by said trustees; and the said collector shall have all the power and authority to collect the same, as the collector of the State and county taxes in Caroline county, and shall be allowed six per centum of the amount collected for his services.
