

149. The Orphans' Court of Caroline county shall ascertain, and pay to the trustees of primary school district number one, in Queen Anne's county, that portion of the school fund of Caroline county due and belonging to that portion of school district number six, in Caroline county, heretofore united to primary school district number one, in Queen Anne's county.

150. The trustees of Centreville Academy shall, until a primary school is established in said district, furnish tuition in said academy, gratuitously, to all children within a circuit of three miles around the academy, whose parents they shall have sufficient reason to believe are not able to pay for their instruction.

151. All free white children in the respective school districts shall have the privilege of being taught in the primary school, free of any charge for tuition, but children living in a district, having property elsewhere, not taxed for the support of schools, and none in said district, or whose parents have property thus situated, shall be subject to a charge for tuition, if the trustees think such children or their parents are able to pay such charge; and no scholar shall be furnished with books or stationery, except such as the trustees shall think unable to furnish themselves.

152. The trustees in each school district may expel any scholar from school for continued and extraordinary misbehavior.

SHERIFF.

153. The sheriff of said county shall be entitled to eight per cent. for collecting and paying over officers' and attorneys' fees.

SURVEYOR.

154. All surveys of land in said county, done by authority of law, may be performed by the surveyor of the county and his deputies, except where he has a personal interest in the survey.

155. All warrants, writs and orders issued from the courts of said county, under which lands are to be surveyed in said county, may be directed to and executed by the county surveyor.

156. But such process may be issued to and executed by any other surveyor of the county, and if so directed, the person to whom so directed, shall make oath to execute and perform his
