

Allegany county shall appoint three judges for each of the three districts divided by the lines of the new county, to hold the election at some convenient point in said districts, to be designated by said County Commissioners, and said commissioners shall publish this law, and the time and place of holding the election herein provided for by this law, in three newspapers published in Allegany county, one of which shall be the Glade Star, and by hand-bills, stuck up and circulated at all prominent places throughout the limits of the proposed new county, for at least thirty days before said election for President and Vice President of the United States, to be held in the fall of eighteen hundred and seventy-two, the persons named in section eleven of this Act to take the census within the limits of the proposed new county, and the Registers of voters in the election districts as they now exist in Allegany county, within the limits of the proposed new county, are hereby required to circulate and stick up said hand-bills herein provided for; and the said County Commissioners of Allegany county shall allow and cause to be paid to them a reasonable compensation for said service.

Publication of notice.

Registers of voters to stick up handbills.

Approved April 1, 1872.

---

CHAPTER 213.

AN ACT to repeal section second of article sixty-four of the Code of Public General Laws, relating to mortgages, and to re-enact the same with amendments.

SEC. 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That section second of article sixty-four, of the Code of Public General Laws, be and the same is hereby repealed, and re-enacted so as to read as follows:

Repealed.

Re-enacted.