CHAPTER 393.

AN ACT for the relief of St. John's College.

WHEREAS, the visitors and governors of St. John's College have successfully reorganized that State Institution of learning, and have gratuitously educated a great number of students from the different counties of this State, in virtue of the annuity bestowed by Act of General Assembly, which they propose to continue to do, and also from the number of those educated free of charge for tuition, to support two students in the collegiate course from each senatorial district of this State, if aided by the State: therefore,
