

CHAP. 183.

and lot in the city of Annapolis, now used by them as a parsonage house, which was conveyed by Walter Cross, to the trustees aforesaid; and upon making the said sale, to require and direct the said Stephen Beard, to convey the same to the purchaser thereof.

To convey—deed confirmed.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Stephen Beard, be and he is hereby authorised and directed, at the request of the Quarterly Conference aforesaid, to convey to the purchaser, the said house and lot, and the said purchaser shall be entitled to hold the said house and lot, free, clear and discharged from any claim of the said church or of any person, claiming under the said trustees or either of them.

CHAPTER 183.

Passed Mar. 5, 1832

A supplement to the act, entitled, An act to establish a Tobacco Inspection, in the city of Annapolis, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, it has been represented to this General Assembly, by the petition of Richard I. Jones, and others, who are stockholders in a tobacco inspection warehouse, in the city of Annapolis, which was established by an act of incorporation, passed at December session, eighteen hundred and twenty-nine, that the said inspection has not answered their expectations, and that there is room in the said warehouse for the storage of other goods, or to be converted into a manufactory of some kind or other, after the storage of all the tobacco which is brought to the said warehouse, and praying that a supplement may be passed, authorising and empowering them to appropriate the same to such purposes—Therefore,

Authority to use as a warehouse.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, the president, directors and company, of the Annapolis Tobacco Inspection, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered to use, occupy and appropriate the said warehouse, or any part thereof, to the storage of any goods, wares or merchandise, and receive a reasonable storage or compensation therefor.

As a manufactory.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That from and after the passage of this act, the said president, directors and company, be and they are hereby authorised and empowered, if they shall think it expedient so to do, to convert the said