

TREASURER.*

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 222. 1890, ch. 535. 1894, chs. 1 and 615.
1914 Code, sec. 346. 1924, ch. 134.

487. At the general election for county officers for Anne Arundel County, to be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, eighteen hundred and ninety-seven, and on the same day in every fourth year thereafter, there shall be elected by the qualified voters of said county, a county treasurer, who shall hold his office for four years, from the first Monday in May next succeeding the day of his election, or until his successor is duly elected and qualified; he shall be subject to removal from office by the County Commissioners of said county, for any wilful neglect of duty or misbehavior in office, at any time, upon conviction in a court of law; the person so elected county treasurer shall be collector of all State taxes and all county taxes, for whatsoever purpose, which shall be levied or assessed during his term of office; and it shall be his duty to receive and collect all State and county taxes levied or assessed or put in his hands for collection, with full power to enforce the payment of the same by sale or otherwise, and to convey title to any real or personal property duly sold by him for the payment of State and county taxes, according to law, and receive all money which shall be due and payable to said county from any source whatever.

Wells v. Thomas, 72 Md. 26. Davidson v. Brice, 91 Md. 681.

P. L. L., 1888, Art. 2, sec. 223. 1890, ch. 535. 1894, ch. 615. 1914 Code, sec. 347.

488. The person elected county treasurer shall give bond to the State of Maryland for the collection of State taxes placed in his hands for collection, in double the amount of the taxes to be collected by him, with good and sufficient sureties to be approved by the Governor, with the condition that the above bounded shall well and faithfully execute his office and shall account for to the Comptroller, and pay to the Treasurer of the State, the several sums of money which he shall receive for the State, or be answerable for by law, at such time as the law shall direct, then the said obligation to be void, otherwise to be and remain in full force and effect; and he shall execute to the State of Maryland a separate bond, in the penalty of forty thousand dollars, with at least three sureties, to be approved by the County Commissioners aforesaid, with the condition that if the above bounded shall well and faithfully execute his office of Treasurer of Anne Arundel County, and shall account for and pay to the County Commissioners for said county, or to their order, the several sums which he shall receive for said county, or be answerable for by law, at such time and in such manner as the law shall direct, then the said obligation to be void; otherwise to be and remain in full force and virtue in law; which bond shall be renewed at the expiration of two years from the time such person is so elected county treas-
