

as if the same had been done or committed within the limits of said city.

In force from March 10, 1864.

OYSTERS.

Chapter 368 amends and re-enacts Section 494, as follows:

34. All oysters carried to the city of Baltimore for sale, shall be sold by the sealed half bushel, or sealed bushel and half measure, and each and every person offending against the provisions of this section shall be subject to a fine of fifty dollars for each and every offence, to be recovered before a justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore, by action of debt in the name of the State of Maryland, one-half to the informer, and the other half to the use of the State.

In force from March 10, 1864.

TOBACCO.

Chapter 346 repeals Sections from Section 494 to Section 552, and enacts the following in lieu thereof:

35. The Governor, by and with the advice of the Senate, shall appoint as soon as possible after the passage of this act, and before the first Monday of February, at each regular session of the General Assembly thereafter, five tobacco inspectors, one for each State Tobacco Warehouse in the city of Baltimore, whose terms of office shall respectively continue until their successors shall qualify; provided, that the successors of the present Governor, in appointing inspectors, as aforesaid, shall select four of them from the tobacco growing counties of the State; no two of whom shall be selected from the same county.

36. Each of said tobacco inspectors before proceeding to act, shall take and subscribe before the clerk of the Superior Court of Baltimore city, an oath or affirmation that he will faithfully to the best of his ability without fear, favor or partiality, discharge all the duties of tobacco inspector, and shall also give bond to the State of Maryland, in the penalty of thirty thousand dollars, with at least two securities to be executed in the