

paid by the inspectors from the receipts into their respective offices. The inspectors shall at no time employ more laborers than is necessary for the effective performance of the work to be done, and in his quarterly returns to the Comptroller of the State, each inspector shall state the average number of screwmen and laborers employed in his warehouse during said quarter, and amount of compensation paid them, and the several clerks in his employment.

40. Each tobacco inspector shall have charge and control of the wharf in front of the warehouse to which he may have been appointed, as far as is necessary to facilitate the landing of tobacco, thereat, or the removal of tobacco therefrom, and any master or owner of any vessel in front of such warehouse, not having any tobacco on board, who shall refuse or neglect to remove his vessel, upon the request of such tobacco inspector, or his clerk, in order that a vessel having tobacco on board may land the same, or that a scow or vessel may receive tobacco, therefrom, shall pay a fine of not less than five, nor more than twenty dollars, to be recovered before any justice of the peace of the city of Baltimore, for the use of tobacco fund.

41. Each of said tobacco inspectors and persons employed by him, as aforesaid, shall, unless prevented by sickness or unavoidable accident, occupy ten hours every day, except Sundays and hollidays, in the actual and personal discharge of his particular duties under this act.

42. If any tobacco inspector shall be prevented, except by sickness or unavoidable accident, from attending at the warehouse to which he is appointed, he shall designate some competent and proper person to act as his substitute, who shall be compensated out of the salary of said tobacco inspector, and for whose acts the said inspector and his bond shall be liable, and his salary shall cease during the time he is so absent, provided such absence exceeds six days at any one time.

43. All tobacco landed or delivered at any of the warehouses in the city of Baltimore, for inspection, shall be taken charge of
