

or the skins of dead animals, or any other impure things therein, or by erecting any privy or other nuisance so near the said water as to pollute the same, he shall forfeit to the said city a sum not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence, to be recovered by summons before any justice of the peace for said county, to be issued against the person so offending; and the person so offending shall be obliged to remove such nuisance or pay the sum of ten dollars for every day the same shall continue, to be recovered as aforesaid for the use of said city.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 11, sec. 139.

219. Any person who shall designedly injure the said water works or any part thereof, or obstruct the passage of the water therein shall, for every offence, forfeit the sum of twenty dollars, to be recovered in the manner and for the use mentioned in the preceding section.

Ibid. sec. 140.

220. If any person, being first duly cautioned, shall use or in any manner meddle with the water in said water-works, whether obtained from hydrants or otherwise, such person not being a water renter at the time, or licensed by said city, he shall forfeit the sum of six dollars, to be recovered and applied as directed in the two preceding sections.

Ibid. sec. 141.

221. The sheriff shall receive and safe keep in the jail of said county all persons who shall be committed thereto for a breach of any of the ordinances of said city, according to the tenor of the commitment, and in the same manner and under the same regulations as persons committed for a violation of the laws of the State.

1864, ch. 221.

222. The mayor and aldermen may provide by ordinance for taking up, fining or committing to the workhouse in said city all disorderly persons and common disturbers of a neighborhood that may be found in said city; and the overseer of said workhouse shall receive and keep such persons according to the terms of the commitment.
