

train for said tax as the collectors of county taxes and levies possess, and to enforce in like manner the payment thereof by sale; the said taxes, when collected, shall be by said bailiff paid over to the town commissioners; and in default, the bond of said bailiff shall be liable to said commissioners; and the said commissioners, in levying the tax aforesaid, shall be governed by the State and county assessment of all such property.

1886, ch. 464.

240. All fines and forfeitures under the ordinances of the corporation shall be recoverable as small debts, and shall be paid into the hands of said town commissioners.

SUDLERSVILLE.

1870, ch. 313.

241. The town of Sudlersville, in Queen Anne's county, is incorporated, and the inhabitants thereof are a body politic by the name and style of "The Commissioners of Sudlersville," and as such may sue and be sued, and may have and use a common seal and may alter the same at pleasure.

1870, ch. 313. 1888, ch. 66.

242. All persons entitled to vote for delegates to the general assembly of Maryland, and who have resided within the corporate limits of said town of Sudlersville for six months preceding an election of town commissioners, or who hold taxable property in said town and pay taxes thereon, shall elect by ballot on the third Monday in the month of April in each and every year, three persons residents of said town for the period of six months preceding said election, and entitled to vote for delegates to the general assembly of Maryland, as commissioners for said town for the ensuing year, or until their successors are elected and qualified.

1870, ch. 313.

243. If any of said commissioners shall die, resign or be disqualified to act, the citizens of said town, qualified to vote as aforesaid, shall proceed as soon as convenient to elect a person to fill such vacancy, and the office of a commissioner shall be vacated by his removal from town.
