

1868, ch. 318.

205. The commissioners may levy a tax for the expenses of the corporation upon the taxable property within the town limits, and the bailiff shall collect the same and shall have power to distrain for the same in the same manner as collectors of county and State taxes now do, subject to such regulations as the commissioners of said town may make in relation thereto.

Ibid.

206. At their first meeting they shall elect a president, who shall preside over their deliberations at all their meetings when he shall be present, and in his absence the board shall appoint a temporary chairman.

Ibid.

207. Before any levy shall be made, they shall appoint three assessors to ascertain the value of the property within the town limits, who shall return the same to them, for record in their proceedings, which shall be the basis of taxation, and they shall have power to add to and amend the same, annually, before making such levy.

Ibid.

208. All offenders against any of the ordinances of the said commissioners for the regulation of the town, shall be tried before a justice of the peace of Princess Anne district of Somerset county, who may fine the offender, if guilty, a sum not exceeding twenty dollars, and may commit the party till the fine shall be paid; or the fine may be recovered as small debts are now recoverable, in the name of said commissioners; and the said fine shall be paid to the town commissioners for the use of said corporation; but the said town commissioners shall have power, on cause shown, to remit said fine.

209. The limits of said town of Princess Anne shall be the same as those laid down and described by Levin Handy, Littleton Long, Sr. and Nathaniel Dixon, Jr., by virtue of a commission issued by the county commissioners of Somerset county, to them directed, dated fourth of March, eighteen hundred and sixty-two,
