

1868, ch. 76.

88. No fines or forfeitures imposed under any ordinance of said town shall exceed the sum of twenty dollars for any offence, and all such fines and forfeitures shall be recoverable before the burgess, for the use of the corporation, as small debts are collected before a justice of the peace.

CLERK.

1884, ch 53

89. The clerk of the circuit court is directed to make a full and general index, in a book well bound and suitable for the purpose, of all judgments recovered or recorded in said court, in the name of each defendant in said judgments, and also showing the name of the plaintiff, the amount of each judgment, the date of signing or recording, the date from which it bears interest, the term of court, and the number on the docket; and if the records of the court show that the same has been satisfied, made or in any way discharged, the said index shall also set forth such fact.

COAL.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 21, sec. 88.

90. It shall not be lawful to sell or purchase stone coal in said county by measure, but all stone coal sold and purchased in said county shall be sold and purchased by weight, at the rate of twenty-two hundred and forty-two pounds avoirdupois to the ton.

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 21, sec. 79.

91. There shall be five county commissioners for Washington county.

Ibid sec. 81

92. At their annual meetings, they shall appoint a fit person, a resident of said county, to be their clerk.

Ibid. sec. 82.

93. Before entering upon the duties of his office he shall, before one of said commissioners, take and subscribe the following oath: "I, A. B., do swear that as clerk to the county com-