

missioners of Washington county, I will honestly and faithfully, to the best of my skill and judgment, execute the duties of said office, without favor, affection or prejudice, so help me God."

1880, ch 65.

94. He shall also execute a bond to the State of Maryland, to be approved by said commissioners, in the penalty of ten thousand dollars, conditioned for the true and faithful performance of the duties of his office, and that he shall well and faithfully account for and pay to the proper person to receive the same, all moneys, orders or funds coming into his hands; and said bond shall be liable for any default by him or misappropriation of any of the county's money or funds which shall be entrusted to him, and shall be recorded in the office of the clerk of the circuit court for said county; and it shall be his duty to receive from the collector of county taxes for said county, all interest coupons upon the bonded indebtedness of said county, due and paid by said collector; also all bonds due and redeemed by said collector, and he shall at once cancel the same and report to the commissioners at their next meeting, the amount of coupons or bonds, or both, so received and cancelled.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 21, sec. 84.

95. In case of a vacancy in said office of clerk, in consequence of death, resignation, removal or disqualification, the county commissioners shall fill said vacancy as soon thereafter as practicable.

Ibid. sec. 85.

96. The said clerk shall receive such compensation as the county commissioners shall think proper to allow, not less than five hundred dollars per annum.

Ibid. sec. 86.

97. He shall be entitled to twenty-five cents each for making out and delivering to the sheriff, certificates of the appointment of trustees of the poor.

1876, ch. 83.

98. He is authorized and empowered to administer an oath or affirmation to any person presenting a claim to said commission-