

which the said panels and the names aforesaid were drawn; and the said books shall be certified by the judge or judges who shall have attended said drawing, to be true copies of the book prescribed in section 586, and said books shall be denominated jury books for Baltimore city.

1882, ch. 67. 1884, ch. 450.

592. When the said jury books shall have been prepared and certified as directed in the foregoing section, it shall be the duty of the said judge or judges by whom the same shall have been so certified, to cause one of the said books to be deposited in the custody of the clerk of the superior court of Baltimore city, and one in the custody of the sheriff of Baltimore city, and one shall be retained by the said judges of the supreme bench of Baltimore city, or by such one of their number as they shall appoint for the purpose of verifying the lists of persons so delivered as aforesaid to the clerks or the sheriff of Baltimore city. And when the said books shall have been delivered to the said sheriff, he shall immediately summon the several jurors drawn for the several panels named in the said book, to serve in the court for which they have been respectively drawn, at such time as shall be designated by the court. And in addition to summoning the said jurors for the said several panels, the said sheriff shall also summon such additional number of persons, whose names are set down in said book, and as nearly as may be in the order in which their names are so set down, as the said judges of the supreme bench, or a majority of them shall direct, to appear in the room of the superior court of Baltimore city at the same time with the panel for said court. And the said additional number of jurors shall constitute a reserve, from which, without further summons, jurors may be selected to serve in lieu of any persons drawn for the regular panels of said court as aforesaid, who may not be found, fail to appear, are legally disabled, or are excused or excluded from attending, so that the panels may be completed by selecting from said reserve, in the following order: first, for the superior court of Baltimore city; second, the criminal court of Baltimore; third, the Baltimore city court; and fourth, the court of common pleas. And until said panels have been completed, said reserves shall be required, upon the order of the several courts, to proceed from one to the other in the order
