

order established by sections 587, 588, 589 and 590, so far as concerns the courts requiring such juries; and besides summoning said panels for the said courts, the sheriff shall also summon at the same time such number of reserves as he may be required, by the judges, or a majority of them, as provided by section 592; and said reserves shall also be liable to service as in said section mentioned.

P. L. L., (1860,) art 4, sec. 613.

597. If it should so happen that the said lists of persons competent to act as jurors, other than the regular panels as aforesaid, should at any time be exhausted as talesmen, it shall also be competent for the sheriff to summon as talesmen any of the regular panels in any of the other of said courts in Baltimore city who may be at the time of such summons not engaged as part of any special panel in any of the said courts; but it is herein provided that whenever any part of the regular panel of any court shall be by the sheriff as aforesaid summoned to attend in any other as talesmen, jurors of the regular panel of the court in which talesmen are required, or so many of them as shall be needed, shall be by the said sheriff notified to attend in the courts from which regular jurors have been withdrawn; and the said jurors shall attend accordingly in the said courts until the regular jurors of said court are discharged from the court in which they shall be required to serve as talesmen as aforesaid.

1882, ch. 67. 1884, ch. 450.

598. Any person who shall fraudulently mark or designate, or open or leave open, or cause or knowingly permit to be marked or designated, or to be opened or left open any ballot for jurors which shall be prepared for the purpose of being drawn under this sub-title of this article, or who, by any fraudulent contrivance, device or collusion whatever, shall prepare or arrange, or cause, or knowingly permit to be prepared or arranged any ballot aforesaid, so that the same or any thereof may be known or recognized in the drawing thereof, or may be drawn in preference to others, or for the purpose of their being so known or recognized, or being so drawn or omitted to be so drawn; and any person who shall in any way fraudulently or collusively deal with the ballots aforesaid, or any of them, or with the drawing
