

1868, ch. 375.

611. Every summons issued by said justices shall be made returnable before the same, or any justice of the peace of the ward in which the debtor may reside; and the defendant shall have his election to have his cause tried before the justice who issued the summons, or before the justice of the ward in which he resides.

P. L. L., (1860,) art. 4, sec. 624.

612. The justices of said city when called out of their offices on business not judicial, may receive such compensation for their services, in addition to their fees of office, as the party requiring their services may allow them.

1876, ch. 28.

613. Each of the justices of the peace appointed for any legislative district shall keep his office within the limits of the legislative district for which he may have been appointed, except as provided in the succeeding section.

1882, ch. 219.

614. It shall be the duty of the governor, after the appointment of the justices of the peace provided for by section 607, to select from the justices of the peace so appointed, a justice of the peace to sit at each station-house in the city of Baltimore; each justice so selected shall keep his office at the station-house for which he was appointed, and shall attend at such station-house from six o'clock A. M. to eight o'clock A. M. on every day in the week except Sunday; and from ten o'clock A. M. until twelve o'clock M., on every day in the week except Sunday; and from two o'clock P. M. until six o'clock P. M., on every day in the week except Sunday; and on every Sunday in each year shall attend at the station-house for which he was appointed from six o'clock A. M. to seven o'clock A. M.; and from five o'clock P. M. to six o'clock P. M.; and at each of said respective sittings, hereinbefore provided for, shall perform all the duties which he is required by law to perform. Each of said justices of the peace so selected as aforesaid to sit at a station-house in the city of Baltimore, shall also attend at his said station-house at such other hours and times as he may be required so to do by the board of police commis-
