

1870, ch. 77.

157. The mayor and councilmen may appoint a supervisor or supervisors of the streets, lanes and alleys of said town, and direct in what manner the same shall be kept up and repaired, and may allow such supervisor such compensation for his services as they may deem reasonable.

Ibid.

158. The bailiff of said town shall attend the meetings of the mayor and councilmen when required, and perform such services as they shall direct; shall prevent the tumultuous and irregular meetings of dissolute and disorderly persons within said town, and disperse them, when assembled, by lawful means, and they shall be held amenable to such penalties as shall be prescribed by the mayor and councilmen.

Ibid.

159. The said bailiff shall have the same power and receive the same fees as constables in Allegany county, for making arrests or serving any process for violation of the ordinances of the town, or in the discharge of his duties as bailiff.

Ibid

160. All fines, penalties and forfeitures imposed by this charter, or any ordinance of said town, may be recovered in the name of the mayor and councilmen of Frostburg, before the mayor or any justice of the peace, as small debts, and shall be paid to the mayor and councilmen for the use of the town.

1888, ch. 136.

161. The mayor and councilmen shall have power to require license from all circuses, theatrical and other exhibitions for gain, exhibiting in said town; they shall also have power to require license from the owner or keeper of any horse, cart, hack, wagon, dray and every description of wheel vehicle and carriage kept for hire in said town; also from auctions, stores, hawkers and peddlers.

1870, ch. 77.

162. The said corporation shall not issue any device, token, note, certificate or evidence of debt to be used as currency.
