

1878, ch. 255.

163. In cases in which any person shall be found guilty of violating any ordinance of the town, it shall and may be lawful for the mayor or any justice of the peace trying said cause, upon conviction of the offender, to impose the fine prescribed by the particular ordinance under which said person is tried, and upon failure or refusal of the party thus convicted to pay such fine and costs, to commit him to the town lock-up for a time not exceeding five days, or to the county jail for a period not exceeding thirty days.

1888, ch. 136.

164. The revised, codified and printed ordinances of the mayor and councilmen of Frostburg, adopted by said mayor and councilmen on the tenth day of August, eighteen hundred and eighty-five, are declared valid and binding, and the printed copy thereof issued by authority and under the sanction of said body, shall be legal evidence of the passage and of the contents of the ordinances contained therein in any court of law or equity in this State; and the said mayor and councilmen may at any time provide by ordinance for the codification or re-codification of such ordinances as have been or may hereafter be passed by them, and for the printing of such codification or re-codification thereof; and the printed copy thereof, issued by authority and under the sanction of said body, shall be legal evidence of the passage of said ordinances and the contents thereof in any court of law or equity in this State.<sup>1</sup>

HOOP-POLES AND TIMBER.

P L L., (1860,) art. 1, sec. 89.

165. If any person shall cut down, or cause or induce any person to cut down, any timber or tree of a size not less than those commonly used for hoop-poles in Allegany county, with intent to steal the same, or any part thereof, every person so offending, his aiders and abettors having knowledge of such intent to steal, shall be adjudged guilty of felony, and shall be sentenced as for feloniously stealing goods or chattels, to the <sup>1</sup> Sections 93-96 (ante pages 42 and 43) are equally applicable to Frostburg.