

CHAPTER 23.

AN ACT to regulate trap fishing in the tributaries of the Potomac river within the waters of St. Mary's county, so as to exclude non-residents.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That it shall not be lawful to catch or take fish in the tributaries of the Potomac river within the waters of St. Mary's county except for food purposes. Unlawful.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That any person or persons wishing to set a fish trap or pound in any of the tributaries of the Potomac river within the waters of St. Mary's county, shall make application to a justice of the peace for St. Mary's county, for a permit to put down such trap or pound, and shall make oath before such justice that he has been a bona fide resident of said county for twelve months immediately preceding the date of such application. Application.

SEC. 3. And be it enacted, That any Justice of the Peace for St. Mary's county, upon application of any bona fide resident of St. Mary's county, shall administer such oath and issue such permit as prescribed in the previous sections of this Act, and shall charge twenty-five cents as his fee. Oath.

SEC. 4. And be it enacted, That any person or persons violating any of the provisions of this Act, shall upon conviction thereof, pay a fine of not less than fifty dollars nor more than one hundred dollars, to be collected as other fines; one-half to go to the informer, the other half to be paid to the school commissioners for the benefit of the public schools of St. Mary's county. Fine.

SEC. 5. And be it enacted, That this act shall take effect from the date of its passage. Effective.

Approved February 18, 1890.

CHAPTER 24.

AN ACT to amend the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline county," by adding a new section to be designated as sub-title "Revenue and Taxes," and to come in as section two hundred and four A.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the Code of Public Local Laws, title "Caroline county," be and is hereby amended by adding the following section to be designated as sub-title "Revenue and Taxes," and to come in as section two hundred and four A. Amend.
