

1
2
3
4
5
6
7
8
9
10
11
12
13
14
15
16
17
18
19
20
21

THE CHAIRMAN: Setting this up as a proposal for the agenda, suppose we look at it before we start and see whether we are on the right track. We have the privilege today of having three consultants, four, actually, although Dr. Winslow really is a member of this Committee and I hope he will let us draft him. We want to take advantage of these people who might not be able to come to very many of our meetings.

We have Dr. Michener who, as you know, has already submitted to us a statement with respect to unicameralism vs. bicameralism, and we have Dr. Graves who most of us recognize as the outstanding authority in the field of government. Some, like myself, have grown up as a student reading his books and then as an instructor using them.

We have Mr. Kentner who is a Nebraskan of some long standing who will speak and we have been very fortunate to be able to get him.

We have Dr. Wheeler and Dr. Winslow who has been working primarily in this area of reapportionment which was given to him as an assignment. Most of the