

1 have been based upon the former statements, and I'm no
2 lawyer, but I suspect that many of those would be thrown 3 out or there would be different interpretations.

4 The second one, and there is some danger in 5 this, the second purpose could be to take something out
6 of that that we don't like. Now, the only trouble about 7 that is that not everybody likes the same thing. Some 8 people like to take out something and somebody else would 9 like to take out something else. I am going to spell
10 this one out very frankly because this illustrates what 11 is inherent in that approach, the purpose.

12 For instance, there is a provision in there,
13 I forget the exact number, which says that the estimates
14 of the judiciary, the State Department of Education for 15 the support of public schools shall be included in the 16 governmental budget without revision and when passed by 17 the legislature shall become the law, without signature.

18 So, that has been a godsend on more than one
19 occasion because some governors -- and I'm not talking
20 about Maryland, now -- but, over the years, some governors 21 have ruthlessly cut the budget by various means, one, by
