

CHAP. 213

and with the consent of the said Charles H. W. Wharton and Rebecca Wharton, to sell, dispose of and convey all and singular the estate and property conveyed to him by the aforesaid deed, on such terms as to him, the said trustee, may appear to most the advantage of the parties interested, and the proceeds of such sale invest in stocks or otherwise, under the direction of the chancellor of this state, for the uses, intents and purposes in the said deed mentioned, limited and expressed.

Invest proceeds.

Bond required.

SEC. 2. And be it enacted, That before the trustee proceeds to make sale of the property hereinbefore mentioned, he shall give bond to the state of Maryland in the penalty of twenty thousand dollars, with security, to be approved by the chancellor, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties as trustee; which said bond shall be filed and recorded in the office of the register in chancery, and a copy thereof, under the seal of the court, shall be as good evidence in all the courts of law and equity in this state as the original might or would be.

CHAPTER 214.

Passed March 15, 1828.

An act to regulate certain powers, duties and compensation of the Sheriff's of Baltimore County, and for other purposes.

Sheriff authorised to deliver to warden—persons arrested and not committed.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the sheriff of Baltimore county shall have the same right and power to deliver to the warden of the jail of Baltimore county for safe keeping, as prisoners, all persons whom he or any of his deputies shall arrest in virtue of any lawful process in a civil action to him directed, before such persons shall be committed, as the said sheriff has by law to deliver to the said warden, persons committed in execution or for want of special bail, and the said sheriff shall also have the same right and power to take out of the said jail, any person so by him delivered to the said warden for safe keeping, at any time before such person shall be committed to prison as he would have had, if the act entitled an act to appoint a warden for the jail of Baltimore county had not been passed: Provided always, That the said sheriff at the time of delivery to the said warden, any person arrested on civil process, and not committed, shall also deliver to him a copy certified by the said sheriff to be true of the writ or other process, in virtue of which such person shall be arrested and held in custody, and shall also give receipt for every person on taking him out of the said jail, and also a certified copy of the order of court, if any, in virtue of which such person shall be taken out of prison.

Or to take such persons out of jail

Certificate required.

Compensation to warden.

SEC 2. And be it enacted, That in all cases where any person shall be so delivered by the sheriff to the warden of the said jail for safe keeping, or committed for want of special bail, the said warden shall be entitled to receive for the use of
