

ALBERT I. CASSELL

Architect of Howard University. Public spirited citizen of Washington, D. C., one of the most outstanding architects in the country. He is charitable, co-operative, congenial, and a Christian gentleman, a man the race is proud to claim.

LINWOOD G. KOGER

Born in Reidsville, N. C. Attended the grammar schools there, high school in Washington; received his college degree in 1920 and law degree in 1922 at Howard University. He has held various public and private offices, among them may be listed: President, Baltimore Branch, N. A. A. C. P.; Alumni Secretary, Howard University; Legal Advisor to several organizations; President, Baltimore Howard University Club; Commander, Walter Green Post, American Legion, and Trustee, Union Baptist Church.

JUANITA LOUISE GORHAM

Executive secretary of the Sharp Street Community House, member of the Board of Directors of the Association for the Handicapped, director of branch activities, supervisor of the Community Club of the same organization, organizer and president of the Social Workers' Round Table of Baltimore, secretary of the local Negro Health Week Committee, Girl Scout captain and Sunday School teacher of Young People in the Sharp Street Memorial M. E. Church. Is much interested in athletics, has to her credit the first track team and summer camp of the Community House. The loss of Miss Gorham in her field of labor in Baltimore for the past four years is deeply regretted by the citizens and organizations with which she has been closely connected. Especially is this true of the Association for the Handicapped, for which she did volunteer investigation of cases, reports and write-ups for the papers. She possesses a magnetic personality, is an amiable and dignified young woman. She has done a very splendid piece of work at the Sharp Street Community House. Her superior executive ability has been so outstanding in conducting the affairs of the Community House that we Baltimoreans feel it will be difficult to replace her. She is the daughter of the Rev. and Mrs. P. T. Gorham of Chicago, Illinois.
