No. 5.

Authorizing and directing The Board of Shellfish Commissioners and the Commander of the State Oyster Navy, to mark with buoys, the line between the waters of the State of Maryland, and the waters of the State of Virginia (known as The Black and Jenkins Line), in Pocomoke Sound and Pocomoke River. And, requesting the co-operation of the The Commission of Fisheries of Virginia.

WHEREAS, There is at present much difficulty in enforcing the LAWS of Maryland in Pocomoke Sound and River because of no definite location of the boundary line between Maryland and Virginia at this point.

AND WHEREAS, In order to conserve and police the oyster, fishing and crabbing interests of Pocomoke Sound to Marylanders engaged either directly or indirectly in the business of taking, catching and selling the products of said sound and river, and to secure convictions for the arrests of violators of the LAWS pertaining thereto.

Be It Therefore Resolved, That The Board of Shellfish Commissioners of Maryland, and The Commander of The State Oyster Navy of Maryland be, and the same are hereby authorized and directed to mark and maintain with buoys placed at intervals of not more than one mile apart the line between the waters of the State of Maryland and the waters of the State of Virginia from Cedar Straits in Pocomoke Sound to Williams Point in Pocomoke River.

And Be It Further Resolved, That a copy of these resolutions be sent to the Governor of Virginia and the Commissioner of Fisheries of Virginia.
