

CHAP. 316.

CHAPTER 315.

Passed Mar. 23, 1833 An act supplementary to an act relating to the University of Maryland.

Graduation fee accrue to Professors.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the graduation fees charged in the Medical department of the University of Maryland, and which have been generally regarded as perquisites for the time and labour spent in the examination of candidates and their theses, shall accrue to the proper use of the Professors in said department; Provided, that the rate of said fees shall not be raised by said professors higher than twenty dollars.

Limit of amount.

CHAPTER 316.

Passed Mar. 23, 1833 An additional supplement to an act, entitled, "An act relating to the People Color in this State," passed at December session, eighteen hundred and thirty-one, chapter two hundred and eighty one.

Preamble.]

WHEREAS, it appears that no certain time is, by the said original act, limited, for the payment of the annual tax directed to be levied by the eighth section thereof—Therefore,

Collectors to pay the tax into treasury by 1st July.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That unless the tax by the said original act directed to be levied, for the year eighteen hundred and thirty-two, shall be paid into the treasury on or before the first of July next, the collectors thereof shall be chargeable with and pay, from that time, interest, at the rate of six per centum per annum.

Or liable to pay interest.

Hereafter by 1st January annually.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the like tax levied, or to be levied, for the current year, and to be hereafter levied for any future year, shall be paid into the treasury on or before the first of January next thereafter, and that upon so much as shall not have been then so paid, interest shall be charged and paid as aforesaid.

Or chargeable with interest.

Case of levy being omitted.

Sec. 3. And be it enacted, That in case the justices of the levy court, or commissioners of any one or more of the counties of this State, shall have failed to levy the portion of tax authorized to be levied thereon by the act to which this is a supplement, then and in that case it shall be the duty of the said justices or commissioners, to levy the same,
