

CHAP. 38.

CHAPTER 37.

Passed Feb. 7, 1833

An act for the benefit of Thomas S. Carter, late Sheriff of Caroline County.

Authority to collect.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That Thomas S. Carter, late Sheriff of Caroline county, be, and he is hereby authorized to collect until the first day of March, eighteen hundred and thirty-four, all fines, forfeitures, amerciaments, officers fees, and public dues, which were placed in his hands for collection, during the time he was in office, and which have not been collected, in the same manner as he could or might have done within the time limited by law.

Accounts first to be served.

Sec. 2. And be it enacted, That the said Thomas S. Carter, before he proceeds to execute the body or property of any person or persons for fines, forfeitures, amerciaments, officers fees, or public dues, by the authority of this act, shall deliver, or cause to be delivered, to such person or persons, chargeable with the same, at least thirty days previous to serving or levying such execution, a specific account of the sum demanded of him, her, or them, with an affidavit annexed thereto, that he hath not, nor hath any person or persons, acting under him, whilst Sheriff, nor since, received any part thereof, or satisfaction for the same, to the best of his knowledge and belief.

CHAPTER 38.

Passed Feb. 9, 1833

An act for the relief of William C. Weatherby, of Baltimore county.

Preamble.

WHEREAS, It has been represented, and appears to this Legislature, that Charles S. Davis and William C. Weatherby, were sureties for Robert H. Scharf, a Collector of Taxes for the City and County of Baltimore, and in consequence of said suretyship the said Davis and Weatherby have become liable for the payment of large sums of money to the State of Maryland, and to the Commissioners for Baltimore county; AND WHEREAS, it also appears that the said Davis and Weatherby are insolvent and unable to pay said moneys; AND WHEREAS ALSO, by a certain resolution passed by the General Assembly of Maryland, at its last session, the said Davis was released, and finally discharged from his
