

INDEX TO THE PUBLIC LOCAL LAWS.

|                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | Chap. | Sec. |
|--------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|--------------|-------------|
| per, etc. such compensation not to exceed $25,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    | 51           | 15          |
| SOMERSET COUNTY —Commissioners for, to cause this act to be published, etc.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | “            | 16          |
| All proceedings of commissioners of, relating to public roads, etc. which have been or shall be finally ratified, and should be recorded, to be transmitted by said commissioners to the clerk of, to be enrolled, etc. and alphabetted; clerk to charge same fees to be paid by commissioners, for like services before the levy court was abolished,             | 75           |             |
| Same mileage allowed to grand and petit jurors of, to be allowed judges of elections and justices of orphans' court, &c.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                           | 102          |             |
| After 1st day of April, oysters not to be taken from waters of, for manuring land,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | 103          | 1           |
| No person to purchase oysters, &c. from the waters of, for manuring land, &c. if acquainted with the fact,                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                         | “            | 2           |
| Penalty not less than $10 nor more than $20, &c.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                 | “            | 3           |
| Partition fences between adjoining fields of different proprietors, &c. in, to be made and repaired by the parties respectively, &c. upon failure of either party to make, repair or keep in good order his proportion of such fence, &c. party so failing, &c. answerable for his proportion, in action of debt, to be recovered before justice of the peace, &c. | 123          |             |
| No person to be answerable unless said fences are made of the ordinary materials &c.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                               | “            |             |
| Thirty days notice before party proceeds to repair, of his intention, &c.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                          | “            |             |
| STATE ARMORY AND TOWN HALL , in Baltimore—The 7th sect. of the act of 1838, ch. 323, repealed, provided the drawing of a scheme, &c. of lotteries conferred by said act, shall cease as soon as the net sum of $225,000 be raised; said privilege not to extend beyond the period when the existing lottery grants have expired,                           | 52           |             |
| A supplement releasing S. Hillen, jun. from liability on account of bonds executed as one of the commissioners of, &c.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                             | 93           |             |