

ing trustee aforesaid, and his successors, respectively, should be authorised and empowered to execute a lease or leases from time to time for the said ground devised in trust as aforesaid, in a lot or lots of ground binding and fronting on the streets, lanes and alleys, and on any of them referred to in said will, of such front and fronts, depth and depths, dimension and dimensions, respectively, as he or they may deem beneficial and most advantageous for the cestui que trusts aforesaid—Now therefore,

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That George Warner, junior, surviving trustee for Mrs. Dorothea Miltenberger, under the will of George Warner, deceased, aforesaid, and his successor and successors, be and he and they respectively is and are hereby authorised and empowered to lease, and to execute, in usual way, a lease and leases respectively for said property devised in trust as aforesaid, for Mrs. Dorothea Miltenberger, in such lot and lots, parcel and parcels of ground respectively, from time to time, of such front and fronts, depth and depths, dimension and dimensions, respectively, fronting and binding on the streets, lanes and alleys, and on any of them referred to in said will of George Warner, deceased, as aforesaid, for ninety-nine years, renewable forever, respectively, at, for, and subject to the payment of such respective annual ground rent and rents as the said surviving trustee, his successor and successors respectively may deem fair and reasonable for the same, and most advantageous for said cestui que trusts, said rents to be reserved and made payable as directed by the said will of George Warner, deceased, as aforesaid.

Authority to lease

CHAPTER 296.

An act entitled, a further additional supplement to the act entitled, an act concerning Crimes and Punishments.

Passed Feb. 27, 1850.

SECTION 1. Be it enacted by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the passage of this act, if any person or persons shall entice, persuade, assist or offer any inducement to any slave or servant, knowing him or her to be such, to runaway from his or

Penalty for enticing slaves to run away, if a free person