

the opposition, but every evil from disunion... By unwillingly we stand, by dividing we fall. This is the experiment now to be attempted in the State of New-York. And every opportunity is embraced to aggravate the circumstances of every disunion, that it may appear dangerous and be imputed to the worst principles. No doubt is entertained that a decided majority of Republicans exists in Massachusetts. But by constant alarms, and the most severe attacks on their candidates, many are undecided in the choice of means by which to discover their patriotism. Still Republicanism gains strength daily.

April 10, 1806. APPROVED, TH: JEFFERSON.

(By Authority.) AN ACT

Relating to bonds given by marshals. BE it enacted by the senate and house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled, That the bond heretofore given, or which may hereafter be given by the marshal of any district, for the faithful performance of the duties of his office, shall be filed and recorded in the office of the clerk of the district court or circuit court, sitting within the district for which such marshal shall have been appointed, and copies thereof certified by the clerk, under the seal of the said court, shall be competent evidence in any court of justice.

Sec. 2. And be it further enacted, That it shall be lawful in case of the breach of the condition of any such bond, for any person, persons, or body politic, thereby injured, to institute a suit upon such bond in the name and for the sole use of such party, and thereupon to recover such damages as shall be legally assessed, with costs of suit; for which execution may issue for such party in due form, and in case such party shall fail to recover in the suit, judgment shall be rendered, and execution may issue, for costs in favor of the defendant or defendants against the party who shall have instituted the suit, and the United States shall in no case be liable for the same.

Sec. 3. And be it further enacted, That the said bonds shall, after any judgment, or judgments, rendered thereon, remain as a security, for the benefit of any person, persons, or body politic, injured by breach of the condition of the same, until the whole penalty shall have been recovered, and the proceedings shall be always in the same manner, and as herein before directed.

Sec. 4. And be it further enacted, That all suits on marshal's bond, if the right of action has already accrued, shall be commenced and prosecuted within three years after the passage of this act, and not afterwards. And all such suits, in case the right of action shall accrue hereafter, shall be commenced and prosecuted within six years after the said right of action shall have accrued, and not afterwards; saving, nevertheless, the rights of infants, feme covert, and persons non compos mentis, so that they sue within three years after their disabilities are removed.

Valuable Property for sale. WILL be sold at public sale on the premises, on THURSDAY, the first day of May, if fair, if not the next fair day, at ten o'clock, two TRACTS of LAND, 4 1-2 miles from the city of Baltimore, on a north direction, one mile from Goven's-town, and divided by the same road that divides the country seats of Gen. S. Smith, and that of Thos. M'Ederry, Esq.—One containing 116 1-3 acres of good land, well improved, and nearly all under good fence—one half in wood. The other contains 67 1-4 acres of tillable land, one half in young thriving wood—about 50 acres under a good fence—each tract has a bearing apple & peach orchard, and well watered by good springs—and as healthy and good neighborhood as any about Baltimore. It is needless to say much about the value of this property, as I expect the purchaser will view it himself, which will be shown by the subscriber, living on the premises. The terms of sale will be accommodating to a good purchaser, and an indisputable title will be given when the whole of the purchase money is paid. Attendance will be given, and the terms of sale made known by ANDREW MEGRUE. April 14 d4t
