

1793:

L A W S of M A R Y L A N D.

C H A P.
XVIII.

Martin's Landing, and as the establishing the same a public road would greatly administer to the convenience of the public, they humbly prayed that the same might be made a public road, and put upon the same footing, and kept up under the same regulations, as other public roads are; all which appearing to this general assembly reasonable, therefore,

Road declared public, &c.

II. Be it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the road aforesaid, leading from Crooked Run to Saint-Martin's Landing, be and the same is hereby declared, deemed and taken to be, a public road for ever, and hereafter to be kept up and repaired as other public roads are in said county, any law to the contrary in anywise notwithstanding.

C H A P. XIX.

Passed December 28.

An ACT to increase the allowance to jurymen of the general court, and the several county courts, in this state.

Allowance to jurymen of the general court.

BE it enacted, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That from and after the first day of February next there shall be allowed to each grand and petit jurymen attending the general court on the western and eastern shores of this state, the sum of twelve shillings and six-pence current money for each and every day such grand and petit jurymen shall attend for the discharge of his duty, besides itinerant charges.

To be paid by the treasurers,
&c.

II. And be it enacted, That from and after the commencement of this act the treasurers of the western and eastern shores, or either of them, shall and they are hereby authorized and directed to pay out of any unappropriated or surplus money which shall be in their respective treasuries, unto each jurymen of the general court on the western and eastern shores, or his assigns, upon such jurymen or his assigns producing a certificate from either of the clerks of said court, such sum as may appear to be due upon the face of such certificate, and the said payments shall be made at the city of Annapolis, or the town of Easton.

Certificates to be made out,
&c.

III. And be it enacted, That the clerks of the said courts shall and they are hereby directed to make out such certificates, with the several sums so due expressed in words at length; and the said clerks shall return to the general assembly of Maryland, on or before the twentieth day of November in each year, a true and accurate account of the amount of all certificates so as aforesaid by them issued.

Allowance to jurymen attending county courts, &c.

IV. And be it enacted, That from and after the first day of February next there shall be allowed to each grand and petit jurymen attending the several county courts in this state, the sum of seven shillings and six-pence current money for each and every day such grand and petit jurymen shall attend for the discharge of his duty as such, to be allowed, assessed and levied, in the several and respective counties of this state, in the same manner as the allowances to jurymen have heretofore been assessed and levied.

Proviso.

V. Provided always, and be it enacted, That nothing in this act contained, so far as it respects the allowance to be made to the grand and petit jurors in the several counties, shall extend to Allegany county.

Former laws repealed, &c.

VI. And be it enacted, That all laws heretofore passed, whereby any other allowance is directed to be made to any jurymen for his attendance as aforesaid, be and the same are hereby repealed, so far as the same shall be repugnant to, or in any manner inconsistent with, the provisions contained in this act.

C H A P. XX.

Passed December 28.

An ACT to confirm the title of certain lots of ground to the society of people called Quakers, in Baltimore-town, whereon is their meeting-house and burying-ground.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to this legislature, by the monthly meeting of the people called Quakers, in Baltimore-town, that they are seized and possessed of a lot of ground on the east side of Jones's falls, included