NOVEMBER.

LAW S OF MARYLAND

C H A P. LXXXVII.

Passed January 19, 1805.

An ACT for the benefit of Rebecca Edmondson, Joseph Edmondson, Elizabeth Edmondson and William Edmondson, children and minors of Joseph Edmondson, deceased.

Preamble.

WHEREAS it is represented to the general assembly of Maryland, by the petition of Mary Edmondson, mother and guardian of her four children, Rebecca Edmondson, Joseph Edmondson, Elizabeth Edmondson and William Edmondson, who are minors, that a certain William Edmondson, senior, deceased, had granted to him by a patent, bearing date the seventeenth day of December, seventeen hundred and eighty-nine, a tract of land called Nod's Forest, being part of New Connaught Manor, lying and being in Cæcil county, and that the surveyor in making a certificate of the said survey, on which the patent was granted, had committed an error, in representing the first course of the same as running north, forty-nine degrees and one third east, two hundred and twenty perches and one quarter, instead of south, forty-nine degrees and one third east, two hundred and twenty perches and one quarter, the true course of the same, and that the said William Edmondson departed this life, intestate, without issue, leaving the four children aforesaid, the children, heirs at law of Joseph Edmondson, deceased, the brother of the said William, who became co-heirs of the said land; and the said Mary praying that the said error may be corrected, and the facts as stated appearing true, and it appearing reasonable that the remedy prayed for should be granted, therefore,

Certificate to be examined, &c.

II. BE IT ENACTED, by the General Assembly of Maryland, That the examiner-general of the western shore be and he is hereby directed and required to examine the certificate aforesaid, on which the patent issued to the said William Edmondson for the tract of land called Nod's Forest, and if the said examiner shall be of opinion that an error has been committed by the surveyor in returning the said certificate, by representing the first course of the same as running north, forty-nine degrees and one third east, instead of south, forty-nine degrees and one third east, then and in that case the examiner aforesaid shall correct the said error, by changing and altering the direction of the first course of the same from north to south; and the register of the land-office is hereby required and directed to alter the patent, granted on the certificate aforesaid, and the record thereof, so as to make the same correspond with the certificate which may be so as aforesaid altered and corrected; provided, that such alteration shall in no degree affect, or be construed to affect, the right or title which any other person or persons shall or may have acquired, of, in and to the said land, or any part thereof, prior to the passage of this act, but that all such rights shall be of the same effect, and have the same avail, as if this law had never passed, any thing herein contained to the contrary notwithstanding.
