

From the county of Baltimore—Hugh Ely, James Turner, James M. Buchanan and William F. Johnson, Esquires.

From the county of Talbot—William Hughlett, George Dudley, Spry Denny and Thomas Henrix, Esquires.

From the county of Somerset—William Done, Littleton D. Teackle, Handy H. Irving and Samuel W. Jones, Esquires.

From the county of Dorchester—Thomas H. Hicks, John N. Steele, Matthew Hardcastle, and Brice J. Goldsborough, Esquires.

From the county of Cecil—John Evans, George Gale, John W. Comegys and John Creswell, Esquires.

From the county of Prince George—William T. Wootton, Benjamin L. Gantt, Raphael C. Edelen and George Semmes, Esquires.

From the city of Annapolis—George Wells, Junior, and Dennis Claude, Esquires.

From the county of Queen Anne—William Grason, Thomas Wright, 3rd. Samuel R. Oldson and Arthur E. Sudler, Esquires.

From the county of Worcester—Stephen Roach, Francis A. Boyer, Joseph Hutcheson and Levin Hitch, Esquires.

From the county of Frederick—Francis Thomas, Roderick Dorsey, John Kinzer and Isaac Shriver, Esquires.

From the county of Harford—Henry H. Johns, James Moores, Thomas Hope and Samuel Sutton, Esquires.

From the county of Caroline—Thomas Burchenal, Robert T. Keene, William Orrell and Samuel Crawford, Esquires.

From the city of Baltimore—Jesse Hunt and John Spear Nicholas, Esquires.

From the county of Washington—Benjamin F. Yoe, David Brookhart, John Witmer, Senior, and Daniel Donnelly, Esquires.

From the county of Montgomery—Henry Harding, Thomas Gittings, Horace Willson and Benjamin White, of Nathan, Esquires.

From the county of Allegany—William McMahon, Robert Swan and William V. Buskirk, Esquires*

---

*It appears by the official return from Allegany County, that but three persons are declared duly elected Delegates for that county to the General Assembly:—and that John McNeill, Junior, and John A. Hoffman, who were the next highest on the Polls, had each an equal number of legal votes for Delegates as aforesaid.